

Figure 1.1a

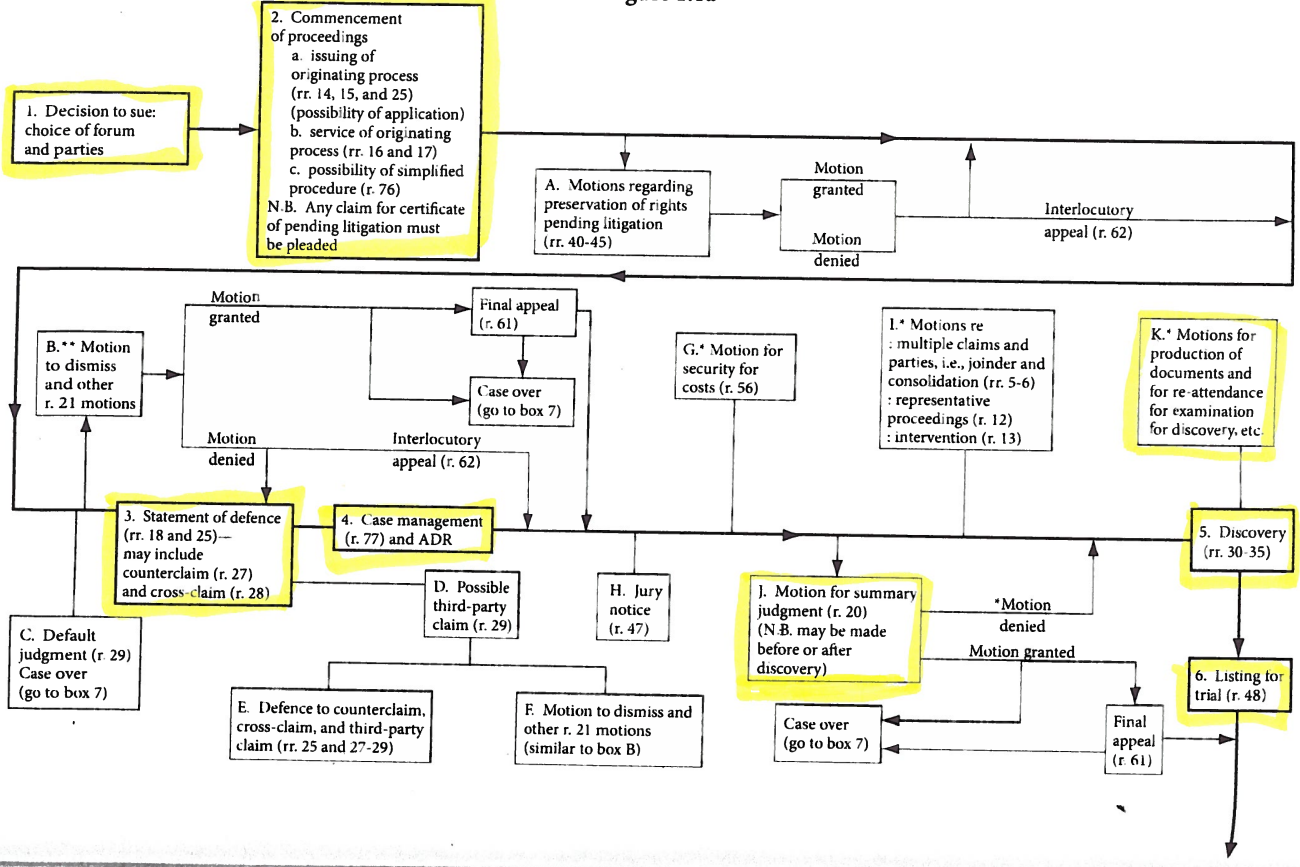

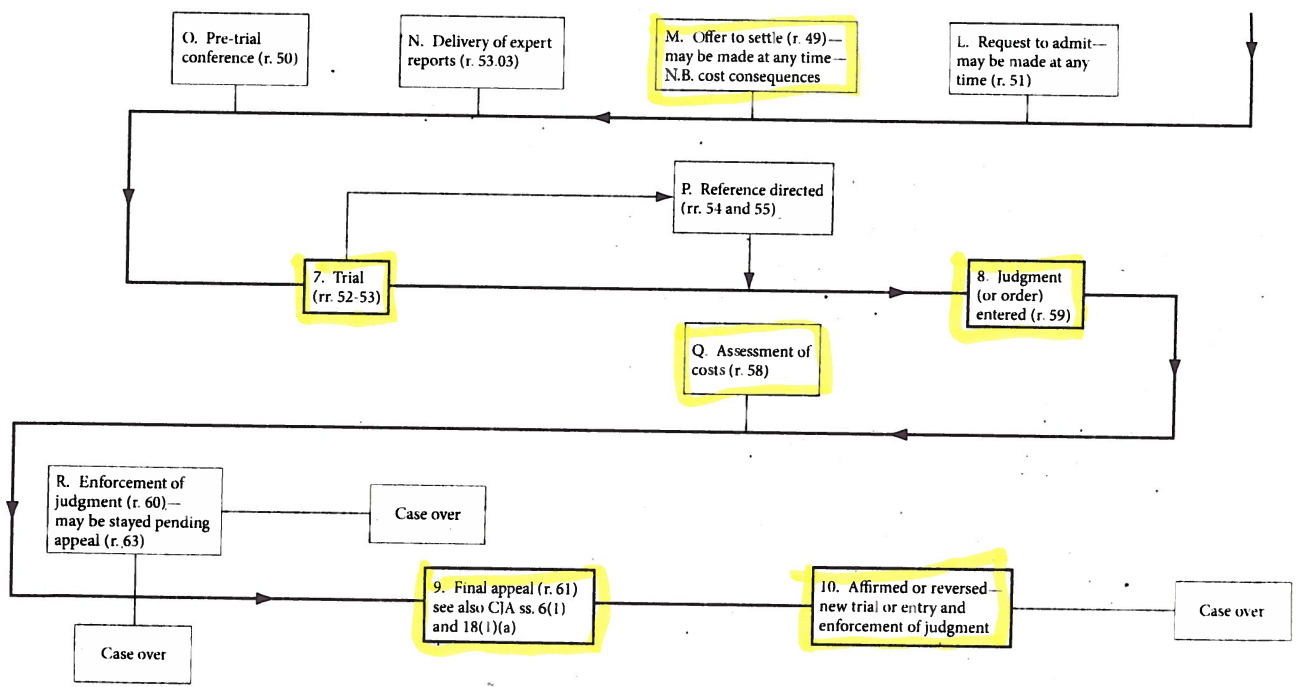

Figure 1.1b

* Indicates interloquency appeal is possible.
  Depending on its nature, a rule 21 motion may be made before or after the delivery of a statement of defence. If brought before a statement of defence is delivered and the motion is denied (either at first instance or on appeal), the defendant must then deliver a statement of defence.